The Stony Creek Fife & Drum Corps is excited to announce their fourth annual golf outing to benefit the organization.

Organized in 1886, the “Creek” has been continuously performing its American patriotic and field music for over 130 years.

Please join us for an enjoyable day of golf at the Portland Golf Course. Your support of this event will enable the corps to continue its mission of preserving the art of martial music.

The proceeds from this event will be used to support the Corps’ appearances, equipment, uniforms and historic building.
